

New Accolades

2018 La Masía Pinot Noir
Don Miguel Vineyard - Russian River Valley

94

Wine Spectator

Well-structured and powerful, with an unamilike richness to the raspberry tart and cherry paste flavors that are backed by firm tannins and fresh acidity. A finish that's loaded with plenty of savoriness and framed by accents of slate.
-KM, Apr 2022

2019 La Masía Pinot Noir
Don Miguel Vineyard - Russian River Valley

95

Wine Enthusiast

This mellow and soothing but structured wine is the best La Masía since 2008. It is well-packed with red and black cherries, blueberries and cinnamon flavors on a medium to full body and backed by moderate tannins. Enticing woody and black tea nuances unroll on the palate, along with subtle oak spices that linger on the finish.
-JG, Oct 2023

2018 Mas Cavalls Pinot Noir
Doña Margarita Vineyard - West Sonoma Coast

94

James Suckling

The iron and mineral comes through with strawberries and some dried stems. Medium-bodied with a firmness and brightness and plenty of freshness. From the Occidental area. Drink now.
-JS, Dec 2023

2019 Cristina Pinot Noir
Don Miguel Vineyard - Russian River Valley

93

Wine Enthusiast

Bold fruit flavors and generous oak spices beautifully fill out this full-bodied and smooth-textured wine that exudes dark plums, raspberries and woody earth tones on a texture of soft tannins and gentle acidity.
-JG, Aug 2023

2019 Tempranillo
Don Miguel Vineyard - Russian River Valley

93

James Suckling

Bramble berry and fresh flowers. Black berry. Hints of sandalwood. Chewy tannins. Polished texture. Gives energy. Medium-bodied. Best Tempranillo in California? Drink now.
-JS, Dec 2023